

Cross country headed to Troy Regional meet

By H.W. Sizek

On Saturday, at the OHSAA Southwest District Cross Country Tournament at the Miami Valley Career Technical Center, the Oakwood Cross Country Team advanced to the Regional Meet.

The Jacks were led by Peter Hix who finished third and Josh Moulton who was eleventh overall. Keith Mueller and Andy Lamb were exactly one second apart in 17th and 18th place respectively. Ethan Kissock garnered the final scoring position for the Jacks in twentieth. Will Reese and Alec Snead were close behind in 21st and 26th. The Jacks finished third in the team scoring - one point behind SWBL rival Brookville and will run next week in Troy.

The Jills were led by Ericha Griep who ran a personal best finishing sixth overall. Elizabeth Connelly, running more than two-thirds of the race with only one shoe, was tenth. Katherine Anderson and Kelsey McDonald were 19th and 36th respectively. Erin Taylor was the final scorer in 45th. Autumn Bruno and Hannah McCarthy were the other runners completing the course for the Jills. Perhaps the most anxious moments of the day were not on the course during the race but after the results were posted. In the initial posting the race officials had the Jills in fifth place four points behind Lewiston Indian Lake. After consultation between the coaches and parents on individuals' finishing places, a protest was filed. The race officials reviewed the finishing line videotape and corrected the initial postings. The final results moved Oakwood into fourth place in the team scoring, two points ahead of Indian Lake allowing the Jills to advance to the Regional meet in Troy next week.
