Obituaries

Georgann Kling Jones

a life-long Daytonian, passed away on December 8th surrounded by her children. She was 73. Despite a twenty-five year battle with Parkinson's Disease, Georgann was always energetic, generous and optimistic. Georgann was the oldest child of George and Anafred Kling of Dayton. She attended Oakwood High School and graduated from Northwestern University with a degree in English language and literature. Georgann loved to read, write, garden, cook and play games. Her bedside table always included a stack of books on her latest topics of interest whether they be Ernest Hemingway, Bonsai gardening or Indonesian rice tables. She loved her large family, valued the uniqueness in each individual and reveled in the raucous stories that arose from family gatherings. She is survived by her children: John Spurlino, Mike Spurlino, Jim Spurlino, Jennifer Jones and Carrie Yearwood; her ten grandchildren; and her four siblings: Diane Surzano, Mike Kling, Suzy Hammons, and George Kling. She was the wife of the late David Jones. The family will have a private family service and requests that in lieu of flowers, donations be made in her name to the Parkinson's Disease Foundation of New York. Condolences and other tributes may be sent to the family at www.routson.com.

Pamela Ledford Seidl

age 60, of Kettering, passed away early Saturday morning. She was a graduate of Fairmont West High School (Class of 67) and Wright State University. Pam was an educator at Oakwood High School. She is survived by her father, Don Ledford, her husband of 41 years, Alois "Chip" Seidl and her children Kipp and Jerri Seidl and Kristin Seidl, her granddaughter Samantha, and her granddog Macy. She was preceded in death by her mother, Rosie Ledford and her granddog Kelsey. Pam was an avid shopper (illustrated best by her extensive shoe collection) and a gourmet cook (particularly with wine, if it made it in the food). She was surrounded by loving friends who became part of her extended family. She continued to shop and go to the movies until the day she passed. A memorial service will be held at Concordia Lutheran Church, 240 Peach Orchard Ave., Oakwood, on Thursday

December 17, 2009 at 11:00 a.m. followed by a reception at the Dayton Country Club from 12:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. The family invites you to stop by for a "drib". In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to The James Cancer Center at The Ohio State University Hospital, Hospice of Dayton, or the Oakwood Foundation c/o Pam and Chip Seidl. Condolences and other tributes may be sent to the family at www.routson.com.
