

Clark's Pharmacy/Medicine Shoppe to merge

Clark's Rx Pharmacy, the health pharmacy, announced today it is merging its Kettering location with the Oakwood Medicine Shoppe. Planning to retire after four decades of service, Medicine Shoppe managing pharmacist Roger Wurtzbacher turned to Clark's as the obvious option for serving his loyal customer base.

"Clark's is a community, family-run pharmacy with seven decades of service that my customers can trust," Wurtzbacher said. "I know that Tim's staff of pharmacists will take care of their health needs."

In addition, the full team of employees from the Medicine Shoppe will now work for Clark's Rx to meet the growing demand the merger will create. The store will continue to be managed by long-time leader Bill Blatchford, Roger will continue on as a consultant for the growing business and Wurtzbacher's son and pharmacist

Doug Wurtzbacher will manage Clark's Rx's compounding services for its south location, a growing segment of pharmacy care.

"Due to the increased demand of compounding services for things like hormone replacement therapy and other specialty prescriptions, having Doug's expertise will be a true asset to customers and will give them every option for taking care of all their prescription needs," said Tim Clark, president, Clark's

Rx.

"We are thrilled to expand and to welcome the Medicine Shoppe family of employees and customers to Clark's Rx," added Clark. "Customers will have access to all we've offered the community for 70 years, in addition to new options like our home medical products division, which provides beds, wheelchairs, home infusion, and respiratory services. And, with the Kettering Rite Aid closing its doors

May 29, we feel we offer the best mix of experience, service and local, community-based care."

Clark's operates nine greater Dayton retail locations, including stores in Belmont, Brookville, Centerville, Franklin, Kettering-Oakwood, New Lebanon, Troy, Tipp City and West Carrollton, all of which offer both pharmacy and home medical equipment. For information about any store, contact Clark's at 937-433-7979.
