Incidents
DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: In the 400 block of Triangle Ave. – Complainant stated that she was having an argument over ownership of dishware while going through a divorce. When officers arrived they noted injuries on both parties: minor bleeding on the right shoulder of complainant 1 and scratches on arms, stomach and back of complainant 2. Complainant 1 said she was pushed to the ground and sustained injury and called police for assistance. Flowerpot was knocked over in the altercation. Complainant 2 said he did not cause any injury to his wife and said that complainant 1 was grabbing him from behind in a violent manner to prevent him from leaving with dishware. Both were aggressive towards each other. So they were both placed under arrest for domestic violence.
