

Vanguard Concerts season a winner

Be a part of VANGUARD CONCERTS 2009-2010 48th International Season of world-acclaimed chamber music soloists and ensembles from Russia, France, Armenia and Israel. All concerts are at 8 p.m. at the Dayton Art Institute's Renaissance Auditorium.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 2009

CHAMBER ORCHESTRA
KREMLIN:

Music Director and Conductor Misha Rachlevsky brings his seventeen musicians back to launch our International Season with their third appearance on the Vanguard stage. Founded in 1991, the acclaimed and exciting string ensemble has recorded sixteen discs, earned the New York Times "Critics' Choice" status and boasts a repertoire of over 800 works from the baroque age to the music of today, including compositions commissioned by the orchestra.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30,
2009 MODIGLIANI STRING
QUARTET:

These four Parisians wowed us two years ago with what the New York Times hailed as their "stunning technical expertise and ensemble work." Winners of both the 2006 Young Concert Artists International Auditions in New York and the 2005 European Auditions in Paris, they have performed at festivals and concert venues all across Europe and America, including New York's Weill Recital Hall, Boston's Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, and Washington's Kennedy Center, winning prizes too numerous to list.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER
21, 2009 NAREK

HAKHNAZARYAN, Cello:

This 21-year old Armenian was accepted at the Moscow Conservatory at age 12 and has since been thrilling audiences in Italy, Austria, France, Great Britain, Greece, Turkey and Canada with "elegant, fearless musicianship – a young Piatigorsky would have been proud." At age 19 he was first prize winner in 2008 Young Concert Artists International Auditions and made his American debuts at Carnegie's Zankel Hall and the Kennedy Center.

SATURDAY, MARCH 6, 2010
RAN DANK, Piano:

This exceptional young Israeli began piano studies at age seven at the Academy of Music in Tel Aviv, going on to earn his Master's degree at the Juilliard School in New York where he won the Gina Bachauer Competition. He has studied with Emanuel Ax and Joseph Kalichstein, and will perform with the Cleveland Orchestra and several European orchestras this season. "A marvelous showing his firebrand flair balanced by exquisite stylistic taste."

SATURDAY, MAY 1, 2010
ST. PETERSBURG STRING
QUARTET:

These Vanguard favorites return to close our International Season with that critics praise as representing "the great Russian tradition of string quartet playing." Founded in 1985 at what was then known as the Leningrad Conservatory, the Quartet moved to the United States in 1997 to continue building a reputation of worldwide proportion including a Grammy nomination, opening of the 2007-08 season of the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center's Quartet Series, three concerts at New York Metropolitan Museum of Art, three concerts at Amsterdam's Concertgebouw, six at London's Wigmore Hall, and tours of fifteen nations across the Globe.

The SPSQ will bring Vanguard Concerts' 48th International Season to a magnificent conclusion.

All concerts are at the Dayton Art Institute's Renaissance Auditorium at 8 p.m.

Tickets may be purchased from the following locations:

Wright State University Center box office, Hauer Music Company, 120 South Patterson Blvd., Downtown, Dayton Art Institute, night of concert only.

For further info or tickets, visit the Dayton Art Institute website at www.daytonartinstitute.org or call 937-436-0244

Season tickets, 5 concerts	$90.00 ADULTS	$40.00 STUDENTS
Single tickets, Chamber Orchestra
	KREMLIN	$25.00
		$20.00
Single tickets, all other concerts	$20.00	$15.00

OAKWOOD BOOSTERS ASSOCIATION

presents

Friday, October 2

Serving begins at 6:00 PM

Grill Menu:

Hamburgers, Cheeseburgers and Hot Dogs

Also: Drinks and Chips

A Special Welcome to OHS Classes of '59, '69, '79, '84, '89

Come Cheer the Jacks to a Homecoming Victory over Brookville

All proceeds benefit Oakwood Boosters Association
Visit our Spirit Shop to purchase new Oakwood Spirit wear!

Mark your calendar for our next exciting Booster Sponsored Event

Spring Fundraiser & Silent Auction Saturday, March 20, 2010

Thank you to Produce One

HOMEcoming is coming!

Who's doing your HAIR?

Give us a call.

AVALON
HAIR & COLOR STUDIO

2541 Far Hills Ave.

299-2252

WORD'S WORTH
writing center

Writing Classes with Katrina Kittle
Join in this local author's exploration of fiction—
The Craft of Fiction • Fiction Workshop
Plus, many more classes on our fall schedule including Writing and Food—Wine and Cheese
www.wordsworthdayton.com • 937.475.5177