School Tech Team shows off BattleBot

By Dawn Beigel

The Oakwood Junior/Senior High School Tech Team proudly displayed at last night's Board of Education meeting a robot they designed and built for their first-time BattleBot competition held March 27 at Piqua JVS.

Their robot, named Mortal KomBot, may have only made it to four rounds at competition, but it has left the team more determined to win next year.

"We hope to have two robots and go to nationals. We're also hoping for the best sportsmanship award," said junior/senior high school teacher Debbie Smith of her team.

The competition, hosted by the Dayton Tool & Die Machinery Assoc., judges on control, aggression and strategy demonstrated by the bots, as well as the last bot standing. "People think it's all about the robot, but a lot of it is about the driver, actually, not the robot," said team member Noah Faust.

The team members attended last year's competition as spectators and left inspired. "We came back and were so excited," said Smith. "The kids were already making plans at that competition."

"We basically put this together at the last minute," said Faust. They gathered ideas, came up with a weaponless, wedge-shaped design, and began building their bot in January. The team demonstrated the operations of KomBot at the meeting.

"We will definitely compete again (and) we hope to start generating interest (in it)," said Faust.

His teammates include his brother, Issac, and Drew Smith, Jonathan Pearson, Sterre ter Haar, Caden Ohlwiler and Erin Cox.

In other information at the school board meeting was the announcement of the athletes/coaches who will be inducted into the Oakwood Athletic Hall of Fame at the third annual awards reception on Aug. 26 at the Dayton Country Club. These individuals will be recognized again at halftime during the home football game on Aug. 27. The inductees include:

Bob Servis (Class of 1933), who was the 1933 Ohio High School State Golf champion, captain of the baseball team and lettered in golf, basketball and baseball.

Mike Creager (Class of 1961), who held the football school record for touchdown receptions in a game and career, and in track held the shot put and discus school records.

Carrie Roedersheimer Doerr (Class of 1987), who made significant contributions to both cross country and track and set several school records.

Nicole Motto (Class of 2000), who lettered in tennis and basketball where she received numerous honors and set several school records.

Board seeks input on levy

In an effort to do their homework before finalizing the millage of the school district levy which will be placed before voters this November, the Oakwood Board of Education is conducting meetings with members of district advisory committees and with the community at large.

Two community meetings will be held in April: Tuesday, April 20, and Tuesday, April 27. Both meetings will be conducted from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Oakwood High School Library. Kathy Hollingsworth, a member of the Oakwood Board of Education and a management, communications and leadership consultant will facilitate the meetings.

Any interested community member is invited to attend and registration in advance is requested to aid planning efforts. To register, call or e-mail Sandy Maresh at the Oakwood Board of Education.

Recreation Master Plan hearing April 29

The city of Oakwood is seeking input, comments and feedback from its citizens regarding the Athletic/Recreation Master Plan and proposed changes for the four sites:

- Oakwood Community Center/Tennis Facility/Gardner Pool
- Old River Fields
- Irving Field
- Creager Field

The city mailed out 3900 pieces discussing the Athletic and Recreation Master Plan on March 15. To date, the city has received a roughly ten percent return rate of replies from citizens.

"We haven't got a lot of input. Which surprises me," said Oakwood City Manager Norbert Klopsch. "The biggest thing concerns significant changes at the OCC." Klopsch was referring to the possibility of removing at least two tennis courts and turning Collingwood Avenue into a one way straight-through street with more parking being made available.

A public hearing on the proposals for the Athletic/Recreation Master Plan will be held on Thursday, April 29 at 6:30 p.m. at the Oakwood Community Center.

To offer feedback on the various plans and proposals, contact Norbert Klopsch at 298-0600 or e-mail him at klopsch@oakwood.oh.us.

AFRL recipient of Aviation Trail award

The Air Force Research Laboratory at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base has been chosen by Aviation Trail, Inc. for its 2010 Trailblazer Award.

The ATI Board of Trustees, which selects the awardee each year, recognized the world-class quality of the laboratory's aerospace research for the U.S. Air Force; its economic impact on the area, especially with mission consolidation directed by the 2005 Base Closure and Realignment Commission (BRAC); and its many community outreach programs in Southwestern Ohio.

The banquet and ceremonies for presentation of the award will be held Friday, April 23 at the Presidential Banquet Center, 4548 Presidential Dr., in Kettering. Tickets are $40 per person and the public is welcome. The social begins at 6 p.m. with dinner following at 6:45.

Reservations must be received by Monday, April 19 at Aviation Trail, Inc., P.O. Box 633, Wright Brothers Branch, Dayton, OH 45409.

The Air Force Research Laboratory is commanded and led by Maj. Gen. Ellen Pawlikowski, with responsibility for 10 technology directorates for research and development (R & D), and testing of air, space and cyberspace systems for the U.S. Air Force.

Accepting the award April 23 will be Joe Sciabica, the laboratory's executive director.

The laboratory directorates are Information, Space Vehicles, Air Vehicles, Propulsion, Directed Energy, Materials and Manufacturing, Munitions, Sensors, the Air Force Office of Scientific Research, and the 711th Human Performance Wing. They are fully described at the laboratory's web site www.wpafb.af.mil/afrl.

Employing some 10,800 technical and support personnel, the laboratory has a $2.2 billion science and technology program, with billions of dollars in research facilities, some of which are unique in the world. As such, it's one of the largest of the R & D units in Air Force Materiel Command which is head quartered at Wright-Patterson.

In addition to its on-site research, AFRL awards large and smaller contracts to local companies as well as major aerospace industries. In fiscal year 2009, AFRL obligated $3.25 billion for research and development efforts across all technical directorates. This includes over $209 million for research and development efforts where the principle place of performance was in the Dayton area.

The laboratory has close cooperative research relationships with colleges and universities in the Miami Valley and across the country. Its economic impact on the Dayton area is increasing with nearly 1,200 military and civilian positions, and their work units, moving here because of the 2005 BRAC.

Those work units are in aerospace medicine research, human performance, and sensors research and are generating $332 million in on-base construction and renovation which will continue into 2011.

The laboratory has been a trailblazer in its formal and informal participation in educational programs focused on furthering young people's interest in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) for students in grades K-12.

Those range from the Wright Scholar program that gives high school students summer work in the laboratory in a technical environment, to SEMEDS (for Scanning Electron Microscope) to Star Base, a Department of Defense program designed to ignite interest in math, science and technology for 5th graders in high-risk schools.

Additionally, AFRL has a vibrant cooperative education program with student researchers from 19 states and 50 universities.

Laboratory personnel are strong advocates of STEM education, have supported the Ohio state and national FIRST LEGO League youth robotics competitions, judge science fairs and engage youngsters in technical discussions at its booths at air shows.

The Trailblazer Award is given annually to recognize an organization or individual who has contributed to the aviation heritage of the greater Miami Valley. This is the 27th presentation of the award, which is timed to be near Wilbur Wright's birthday (April 16, 1867) The recipient last year was Amanda Wright Lane, great-grandniece of the Wright brothers.

Formed in 1981 as a non-profit, Aviation Trail's first project was the development of a tourist trail of aviation-related sites laid out as a self-guided tour. The group's mission soon expanded to include preservation of two little-known original Wright brothers buildings still standing on their original sites in Dayton.

'Round Town

Last Wednesday Marian Buchanan treated her bridge club to lunch and bridge at Sycamore Creek Country Club. The 'bridge' was great – but Oh that Carrot Cake! Even if you hated cake you'd've loved that carrot cake! and Round Town ate every bite right then and there. Others said: "I'm so full I'll take the rest of my cake home to...1. Have for dinner 2. Save for my husband 3. It's not on my diet. But it's a safe bet that none of those boxes made it home with any cake left inside!

Sally Riffle is a member of this great-group. So is Patty Ballard – who's just home from or leaving for – somewhere. Dotty Bachus, Paula Schaeffer, and Midge Harlan are terrific players. 'Round Town' won the 'Booby Prize'!

Woman's Literary Club met at Dayton Country Club last Thursday. It was Guest Day and featured a 'paper' by Nancy Pinard on Eugene O'Neill (1888-1953) 1936 NOBEL PRIZE winner. Nancy's paper was great! But the 'subject' – O'Neill – was one despicable character! You all would recognize the names of his many famous plays – but did you know that he was a hopeless drunk, drug addict, and... reading all the biographical material on O'Neill must have been a chore for Nancy. Her 'paper' deserved a standing ovation!

Friday morning it was off to Lexington, Kentucky for the three-day Biennial Masters and Staff meeting. About a hundred MFH's and Huntsmen were there from all over the country. It's always a highlight to get together and compare the good-news, the problems, and discuss new ways of solving old and new situations.

Carolyn Uecker, Diedre Koik, and Round Town, and MVH subscribers Roseanne Allen, Pam Gruz, and Bonnie Geiger represented Dayton's Hunt. Morley Thompson, John Babcock were there from Cincinnati. Sharon Chappellear came from Columbus. Old friends from Virginia, and North Carolina, the President of the Assoc. Marvin Beeman, DVM from Colorado – were all part of the dynamic group.

Friday evening everyone was invited for cocktails and dinner at the historic farms of Jerry Miller, MFH of the Iroquois Hunt of Lexington. Jerry's library of books on hunting, hounds, and horses is considered to be the finest private collection in the country. His paintings of hounds, and horses cover the walls – what a great treat to be in such a unique home in an equally unique Kentucky-Only-Wooded-hilly-landscape!

Saturday morning most everyone went to Keeneland Race Course for breakfast in the Track Kitchen. The President of Keeneland took the MFH's track-side and gave the history of this private track – as everyone watched dozens of Thoroughbreds on their morning workouts.

(On Friday – the day before – MVH Subscriber, Bob Bogart had a horse in the fourth race. His horse led for the first 3/4 of the race – flagged and came in fourth.)

Friday evening was the Seminar Dinner – and at eight o'clock Sunday morning the Biennial Staff Seminar featured a long time friend of the Miami Valley Hunt – Dr. Stanley Gehrt, Professor at Ohio State University. Our MVH introduced Dr. Gehrt to the Association two years ago in New York City at the annual meeting – and he brought down the house! Stan is better known as - The Coyote Man – and is considered the world's authority. Most of the Hunts in the USA and Canada are now chasing coyotes. Dr. Gehrt's thesis for his Ph.D was re: the eight coyote packs around O'Hare Airport in Chicago!" And again – The Coyote Man – brought down the house!

Sunday afternoon Pam McGinnis had a brunch for them what were part of her 'Style Show' at St. Paul's Church several weeks ago. Every amateur-theatre-group in the area's directors – were there. Pam, who's been the star of every amateur production, had really called in her chits. Everyone who'd participated had a super time – and did so again at McGinnis' home on Harman.

RED fundraiser slated for April 24

Oakwood residents Debbie Basnett, Dana Hookassian, Robin McMacken and Jean Winham, owners of Vintage Scout Interiors in historic downtown Centerville, will present an "Alice in Wonderland"-inspired table design Saturday, April 24, as part of RED: The Silver Celebration. The event is a fundraiser for the AIDS Resource Center Ohio and marks the center's 25th anniversary.

RED is an acronym for the event's underlying message: Reach. Empower. Dream of a world without HIV/AIDS. "We are thrilled to be participating in such an important event," Hookassian said. "The money raised will help the center continue its mission to provide HIV/AIDS prevention and education programs; testing and counseling; support services; and access to care throughout the state."

The designers also summoned the spirit of characters from "Alice in Wonderland" to create a whimsical and joyful approach to their table design. This year, in honor of ARC Ohio's 25th anniversary, RED: The Silver Celebration will embrace the color silver as the unifying theme.

The RED Table Design Gala

will highlight the talents of the area's top designers. Forty tables will be decorated around a central theme, but each table will be distinctly different.

The event begins at 6:30 p.m. April 24 at the Roundhouse on the Montgomery County Fairgrounds. Dancing will follow the dinner with Ruckus Roboticus as the DJ. Raffle tickets, which are $25 each or five for $100, are still available at Vintage Scout for a 2010 red SmartForTwo Passion Coupe. There also will be a silent auction the night of RED: The Silver Celebration. For more information, call ARC Ohio at 461-2437.

Hadassah Fashion Show and Luncheon June 13

The Dayton Chapter of Hadassah's Annual Fashion Show, Luncheon and Auction will be held at Beth Jacob Synagogue, 7020 North Main Street, Dayton on Sunday, June 13. A silent auction will be at 10:45 a.m. with the luncheon at 12 noon. Fashions by Christopher and Banks, C.J. Banks, and Cake and Ice cream, a Children's Boutique following lunch and the fashion show held afterward. Luncheon cost is $28. Reservations can be made by calling the Hadassah Office at 937-275-0227. Auction website opens in May at <http://hadassahauction.com>. The community is invited to bid.

Smith Gardens Perennial Sale April 16-17

Don't forget the Friends of Smith Gardens "Perennial Sale" will be held on Friday, April 16 and Saturday, April 17 at the Oakwood Community Center, 105 Patterson Road. The hours are from 3 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Friday and 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday.

Over 100 varieties of plants will be available including perennials, hostas, ferns, herbs, ornamental grasses, wildflowers and some annuals.

All plant material is Ohio grown, within a 100 miles of Dayton. All of the growers are known for their excellent quality plants. Plant material will be potted in 3" and 4 1/2" pots, quarts and gallon containers and will arrive in Oakwood the day of the sale so all the plants are fresh from the growers and the best of quality.

A complete listing of plants is now available for pick up at the Community Center, or by mail, by calling the OCC at 298-0775. This fundraising event is open to the public with proceeds going to the care and maintenance of Smith Gardens.

Celebration of art and life at Brookdale Place

Come meet the artist and experience her "Life Works". Join in as we Celebrate Edith Nolen's 102nd Birthday on April 15, 2010 at Brookdale Place at Oakwood from 4:00-7:00 P.M. She has chosen a painting to be raffled for 5.00 a ticket. Edith will be donating all proceeds to the Dayton Food Bank. Edith is very grateful for all the love she receives from her family, friends and the community here at Brookdale Place. Her favorite color is royal blue which you find in most of her paintings. She is the Queen of Brookdale Place.

Edith Nolen with painting.

Edith Nolen was born April 8, 1908 in Nashville, Tennessee. She attended school through the 8th grade graduation. After graduation she worked for the telephone company as a long distance switchboard operator. She married Claude Nolen when they were 16.

Claude and Edith moved to Dayton in 1928. She earned a high school diploma and attended the University of Dayton. Patterson Field is where she worked as a switch board operator. Eventually she became chief operator at Wright Field. Edith retired in 1963. Edith and Claude were very active in Bath Presbyterian Church. She taught Sunday school for many years. It was after retirement when she began painting. She first took lessons at the YWCA downtown Dayton. Later she took private lessons from an art instructor. Nature and landscapes are her favorite subjects.

OHS Mulch Sale delivery and pick-up dates

Thank you very much to all of the people who ordered mulch from the Senior Class of 2010 to support this year's Prom! Just as a reminder: Your orders will be in Wednesday, April 14 to Saturday, April 17. Money will be collected at time of delivery to your home, or when you pick it up from behind the school near the stadium's north concession stand. You may pay in cash or make a check out to Oakwood High School. If you have any questions, feel free to call Sarah Oda at 937-479-2402 or send an email to ohsmulch-sale@gmail.com.

Relay for Life Garage Sale April 17

Team Telford and Kamela & Company Realty will be holding a garage sale at 317 Telford Ave. on Saturday, April 17 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. All of the money from the sale will be used for cancer research in conjunction with the Oakwood Relay for Life.

For information regarding donations or joining our team please contact Judy Whitehead at 478-4015 or Cyndi at Kamela & Company Realty at 671-4089. All of the proceeds benefit Relay for Life.

Faust strikes bargain with 'Bankston Magic'

Dayton Opera has gone to Hell! Don't be alarmed, dear readers. While Impresario Tom Bankston did bring the devil into Dayton, he proved, as the operatic Méphistophélès, to be quite charming and very talented.

In fact, the customary "Bankston Magic" provided Dayton Opera audiences with a stunning production of Gounod's Faust. The ancient legend was compacted from Goethe's rambling play by librettists Barbier and Carré into one of the most popular operas. Elegant direction by Kathleen Clawson gave the performance believability while spinning out the occult tale.

Our ages-old fascination with the devil is replete in literature. In the Faust legend we have all the elements. Faust sells his soul to the devil in exchange for youth and beauty. The beauty is in the form of Marguerite. Faust achieves Marguerite but leads to her destruction. She succumbs to his devil-aided charms, becomes pregnant, is shunned by society and condemned to death for killing the child.

How these very disturbing elements are handled from the opera stage is the challenge of the director. Kathleen Clawson kept Marguerite pure. The pregnancy was visible; her rejection by society, Faust and her brother, Valentin, made her a sympathetic victim and not a crazed monster. The infanticide was never apparent. Brava! Kathleen.

The cast was nothing short of superb. Led by Dayton Opera's favorite tenor Scott Piper as Faust, vocal art reigned supreme. As Marguerite, the beautiful Anne-Carolyn Bird returned to Dayton and stole all hearts with her portrayal of innocence lost.

Young and virile Kirk Eichelberger made his major role debut as Méphistophélès into a triumph. Poor Valentin, Marguerite's brother, gets killed by Faust with the help of the devil. All is not in vain as Kyungmonk Yum got to sing Valentin's super aria and played a masterful dramatic scene before surrendering to the forces of evil.

Three other characters, minor only in the length of their roles, were vital to the success of the opera. As Siebel, the shy but ardent village suitor of Marguerite, Audrey Walstrom made her Dayton Opera debut. A radiant beauty, she was hidden in men's clothing but her vocal gifts were more than evident.

Charles Jebaily and Deborah Nansteel also made their Dayton Opera debuts. Charles, a CCM graduate student, as Wagner, Valentin's friend, sang with vim and vigor. Deborah, as Marguerite's guardian Marthe, let her effervescent personality radiate over the footlights as she shamelessly pursued the devil as her own sex-object.

The opera exists in its music. Gounod provided a magnificent score. Maestro Joseph Mechavich returned to the orchestra pit and the Philharmonic players with a flowing, transparent reading of this wonderful music.

The magic of the opera began with the first notes. As the aged Faust, Scott Piper sang his plaints

Up for Adoption...

Tinsle is a 2-year-old female grey shorthair. Tinsle is such a sweet-heart, and she enjoys the company of people and loves to cuddle. This declawed cutie would make a wonderful indoor cat for anyone.

Joker is a 3-1/2 year-old male Coonhound Mix. Joker was rescued from a horrible cruelty case in Indiana. He was transferred to our shelter in the hopes of finding a loving and understanding home. The conditions he came from included using cats as bait for hunting training, severe neglect, and at times, torture for the dogs at his home that did not perform to their owner's standards. Three-year-old Joker just wants stability and love, but we must find him a home with no other small animals. He is a very joyous dog, despite his awful past, and he adores the people who will give his playfulness and "silliness" some attention. He's learning to "come" when called and he is just a sweet, goofy boy who has been in a shelter environment for far too long. Please come by the Humane Society of Greater Dayton see him today and offer him his first chance at being part of a loving, forever home!

Paul is a 2-month-old German Shepherd Mix. He came to the Humane Society with his litter-mates from a family that could not care for them. Paul is a darling puppy with a spunky personality and lots of love to share. He is patiently waiting for his forever home at the Humane Society of Greater Dayton.

Poochie Bath opens under new owner

Poochie Bath & Boutique, formerly Ginger's Poochie Bath, is under new ownership. Poochie Bath & Boutique is now owned by 25-year Oakwood resident, Deborah Monahan. A Grand Opening was held last week with about 200 new and former clients attending.

It was Deborah's love for dogs and her significant business experience that made her decision easy.

to purchase the business. This would give Deborah the opportunity to once again work with her passion!

In addition to the grooming and business experience, Deborah is also a member of the Miami Valley Pet Therapy Association and has been training dogs for over 10 years. She has also volunteered at SICSA and the Humane Society of Greater Dayton for a number of years.

Poochie Bath & Boutique is the only self-service dog wash in Kettering that additionally offers full-service grooming by appointment. They take pride in the services they offer to all breeds of dogs and cats and the open floor plan allowing all grooming to be watched. Poochie Bath & Boutique offers a fun, playful environment focusing on the customer experience and the knowledgeable staff offer help with basic grooming techniques and the proper tools to care for your dog's specific coat. "It is rewarding to educate an owner how to properly care for their dog and see the heartwarming experience of a bond strengthening between owner and companion," says Deborah.

Poochie Bath will be open the following hours: Monday – Thursday from 9 a.m. – 8 p.m., Friday from 9 a.m. – 7 p.m., Saturday from 9 a.m. – 6 p.m., and Sunday from 12 p.m. – 6 p.m. They are located at 2308 E. Dorothy Lane in the Woodlane Shopping Center at the corner of Dorothy Lane and Woodman Drive.

Come "skurry" with us to help the Humane Society of Greater Dayton!

You can raise money to support the Humane Society (and win some great prizes too!):

register: You can register online at our website, www.humanesocietydayton.org, or by returning the attached form by May 7. You can also register on May 8, event day. All paid registrants will receive a goodie bag, dog bandana, and more!

recruit: Challenge your friends, family and co-workers to join your efforts help save pets' lives. They can register to join the walk or sponsor you by donating online by visiting www.humanesocietydayton.org. Offline donations can be submitted the day of the event or delivered to the Humane Society directly before the event.

form a team: Walk with a group of friends, family or co-workers. Groups of 2 or more can participate in team incentives, as well as the Top Dog individual incentives!

fundraising: There's a pet out there that needs your help! Help raise additional donations by creating your personal fundraising page through the First Giving website when you register. Email your web page address to friends, family, neighbors and co-workers asking them to donate and raise even more money for our local animals. You can even share your progress and ask for donations through Facebook!

did you know?: Your registration fee will provide food, shelter, and veterinary care for a dog at the Humane Society for one week!

solicit matching funds: Ask your employer to match the donations you collect.

important information: Check-in starts at 8:30 am. The walk begins at 10:00 am. For more information, please call (937) 268-7387 or visit www.humanesocietydayton.org. Remember, we "skurry" rain or shine!

Postal 'Stamps to the Rescue' on sale

By Frank Stanko

The U.S. Postal Service is gearing up for its "Stamps to the Rescue" campaign with the help of a famous friend, Ellen DeGeneres. On April 30, 2010, in North Hollywood, CA, the Postal Service will issue new set of 44-cent stamps – Animal Rescue: Adopt a Shelter Pet. With these 10 stamp designs, the Postal Service hopes to raise awareness of the need to adopt shelter pets.

The pets depicted on the stamps were photographed by Sally Andersen-Bruce near her home in New Milford, Connecticut. All had been homeless at one time; all but one had been adopted when they were photographed.

DeGeneres, one of the People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals' 2009 People of the Year, is actively promoting the campaign's message of increased pet adoption. Along with her on-air plugs, the television personality is adding philanthropy to her efforts.

Halo Purely for Pets, a pet-food company of which DeGeneres is part owner, will donate a million servings of their "Spot's Stew" to needy pets in animal shelters nationwide.

Although the stamps do not go on sale until April 30, they are available for preorder at www.stampstotherescue.com.

The top 10 most popular dogs in the U.S.

It's a good time to have four furry legs. Pet ownership has surged over the past twenty years, and dogs in particular are enjoying major popularity. But whether you already own a pooch or are searching for one that's right for you, it's interesting to note which are the most popular dogs in America.

For the 19th consecutive year, the Labrador Retriever is the most popular purebred dog in America, but could this be the last year for the Lab's reign? According to American Kennel Club (AKC) 2009 registration statistics, the German Shepherd overtook the Yorkie and is now ranked second most popular in the nation for the first time in more than three decades.

An American favorite since the time of Rin Tin Tin, the German Shepherd became the number one breed of the 1920s, but slipped in popularity until after World War II.

"Labs have been America's top dog for nearly two decades due to their loyal and gentle nature," said AKC Spokesperson Lisa Peterson. "But the German Shepherd has gained ground recently, quite possibly due to the increased attention they receive for their security efforts at home and abroad, and search and rescue efforts in Haiti."

The type of dog you choose can say a lot about your personality.

Labrador Retrievers are an ideal sporting and family dog. Millions of Americans own and love Labs because of their even temperament, trainability and family-friendly nature.

German Shepherds are hailed as the world's leading police, guard, and military dog, however this dependable breed is more than its nine-to-five job. Energetic, approachable and fearless, German Shepherds are loyal family pets and good guard dogs, the ideal choice for many families.

Yorkies offer big personalities in small packages. They serve as great companions for all ages, due to their loving personality and convenient, portable size.

With their friendly temperament, intelligence and eagerness to please, Golden Retrievers are popular as family companions. This active and energetic Sporting breed can adapt to many different living situations but requires daily exercise in order to thrive.

Beagles make wonderful family pets due to their merry personalities, compact size, and easy-care coat. Curious and comedic, they often follow their noses, which can sometimes lead to a little mischief.

Selecting the right dog for you can be a rewarding journey. It is important to consider size, energy level, grooming needs, trainability, and temperament, and choose a dog that best fits your lifestyle.

For more information on all 164 dog breeds the AKC registers, visit www.akc.org.

The most popular dogs in the country according to the AKC are:

1. Labrador Retriever
2. German Shepherd Dog
3. Yorkshire Terrier
4. Golden Retriever
5. Beagle
6. Boxer
7. Bulldog
8. Dachshund
9. Poodle
10. Shih Tzu

with such clear beauty that the character became real and deserving of the audience's sympathy. This is a rare gift as this scene is often only a necessary precursor to the story.

When the devil appears to make his bargain, both characters interact with such openness that Kirk Eichelberger's Méphistophélès became "the devil you loved to hate." Kirk moved with such machismo that those of us of proper age would recall Errol Flynn in his signature roles. And yes, he also sang with the same virility!

Judicious cuts made the opera, while long, never tiresome. The set, simple units to represent the medieval village life, was kept a bit dark in most scenes. The magnificent starry night in Marguerite's garden was made more dramatic by this darkness.

While I try not to use the adjectives such as "best ever" in my reviews, I must name the final scene, Marguerite's resurrection, to be the best ever.

As the stirring music and Anne-Carolyn Bird's magnificent voice mounted, the prison bars became a scene of exploding galaxies, meteor showers and radiant light. John Rensel devised this thrilling display and every person in the audience welcomed Marguerite into her well-deserved celestial reward.

"Bankston Magic" continues for two performances, Friday April 16th and Sunday April 18th. Don't miss it or "the devil may get you!"

WSU Arts Gala

The Wright State Arts Gala, in its eleventh year, kept its reputation as the "most fun evening in Dayton" alive and well. This incredible display of the manifold talents of the WSU students is enhanced by endless and highly varied food stations and non-stop energy by the student performers. Breathless guests trying to experience everything available are seen darting from venue to venue, all replete with ear-to-ear smiles.

This Gala had a very special guest - Governor Ted Strickland broke the mold of typical politicians' appearances. He came early and stayed late. And, from the clear evidence of his smile, he enjoyed every moment.

The evening is the collaboration of all the arts departments of WSU. President Dave Hopkins and Dean Charles Taylor were full of pride in their introductory remarks. This pride is well-deserved by the entire university and Dayton deserves to revel in its far-reaching successes. Congratulations to all as I salute the hard work of the committee led by co-chairs Vicki Pegg and Robert McGriff and the tireless staff led by Jennifer Cabrera.

The real stars of the evening are the 35 talented students who have received Arts Gala scholarships this year. Someday, we will be able to double that number.

I'll let you all know the date of next year's Gala. This is really a don't miss!

Josh Halpern to perform cello recital April 18

Oakwood resident Josh Halpern will perform a cello recital on Sunday, April 18 at 2:30 p.m. at Sears Recital Hall on the University of Dayton campus. The recital is free and open to the community.

Josh, a sophomore at Oakwood Junior High School, will play a program of Bach, Brahms, and Saint-Saens. He is co-principal cellist in the Dayton Philharmonic Youth Orchestra and Muse Machine and performs with the Oakwood High School Symphony Orchestra. He is also a founding member of the Blackbird String Quartet, which has performed together at public and private events throughout the region.

Josh currently studies with Alan Rafferty, cellist with the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra. This summer, Josh will attend the Meadowmount School of Music in Westmont, New York, a seven-week summer school for accomplished young strings players training for professional careers in music. At Meadowmount, he will study with Hans Jorgen Jensen, professor of cello at Northwestern University's School of Music. In previous summers, he has attended Boston University Tanglewood Institute's String Quartet Program and the Credo Chamber Music Program at Oberlin Conservatory.

Auditions for musical Annie

Auditions for the Summer Arts Festival's production of Broadway musical ANNIE will be held on Friday and Saturday, April 16 and 17, at the Heritage Center of Clark County, 117 S. Fountain Avenue, downtown Springfield.

Roles for approximately twelve girls (ages 7-14) and for approximately twenty to thirty teens and adults are available.

No experience is required, and auditions are open to the public.

Complete audition information, including audition times and other details, is available at springfieldartscouncil.org

ANNIE will be presented at the Summer Arts Festival on June 17, 18, and 19 at 8 p.m. The performance is produced by Ohio Lyric Theatre and The Springfield Arts Council.

Students from 6 high schools organize 5K run

Students from six area high schools are joining together to stage their first joint 5K "Run Above the Influence" Saturday, April 17 along the Great Miami River Recreational Trail. With a start time of 9 a.m., the race will launch from K-Station and Marina Dr. in West Carrollton. The students are working together as part of the South Suburban Coalition... United for Alcohol and Drug-Free Youth. Proceeds from the race will be used to help benefit teen alcohol/drug education and prevention programs, as well as to provide healthy alternative activities in our communities.

There will be a race pre-registration fee including a t-shirt of $10 for students, $15 pre-registration for adults, $30 pre-registration for families (up to 4 participants covered) and a $20 race-day registration fee. You can register online or print out a mail-in registration form at sscdan.org.

The South Suburban Coalition... United for Alcohol and Drug-Free Youth is an eight-community coalition advocating for our youth by promoting healthy choices and positive alternatives to reduce underage drinking and other drug use. Located in the south suburbs of Dayton, Ohio, our Coalition is made up of youth, parents, businesses, professionals and other community/school volunteers from Centerville, Kettering, Miami Township, Miamisburg, Moraine, Oakwood, Washington Township and West Carrollton. Founding member organizations include the city councils, township trustees and school boards of the eight-communities. The Coalition has a Youth Action Group with representatives from Centerville, Fairmont, West Carrollton, Miamisburg, Oakwood and Alter High Schools. Oakwood students who are members of the Coalition include Seniors Liz Rasmussen & Maddie Shearer, Junior Madeline Lehrner, and Sophomores Max Snyder, and Zach Harmony.

Eagles soar over Lumberjacks 12-2

By Chris Morris

Oakwood came into the Southwestern Buckeye League game undefeated – but it got late out there early for the Oakwood Nine. Eaton started quickly with a couple of infield hits sandwich around a base on balls to load the bases in the top of the first. The Eagles clean-up hitter, Zack Wilson, then walloped a 1-1 fast ball onto the softball diamond in deep right field. By the time the Jacks had retrieved the blast, Wilson had rounded the bases for an inside the park grand slam, giving the Eagles a four run lead before an out had been recorded. Jacks starting pitcher Beasore retired the next three batters to end the first. The Eagles added another four runs in the second inning to chase Beasore, capped off by Zack Wilson's second home run of the game, a two run shot off the score board in centerfield. After the dust had settled, The Eagles had extended their lead to 8-0. Eaton piled on another three runs in the third frame on three hits, an error, a walk, a hits batsman off relief pitcher Robbie Wagner for an 11-0 advantage. Alex Corrado took to the mound in the fifth, pitching capably and holding the Eaton powerhouse at bay through two innings. A solo homer in the sixth gave Eaton the final run required to close out a 12-2 run rule victory. The bright spots of the evening for the Lumberjacks were a solo home run by Michael Galaska in the 3rd inning – his second of the season – and a laser over the left field fence off the bat of sophomore Trent Jervis in the fourth stanza, the first home run in his Jacks varsity career. Hammering Hank Beasore chipped in a pair of singles to complete the Lumberjacks offense for the game. The loss brings the Lumberjacks record to 2-1 on the season.

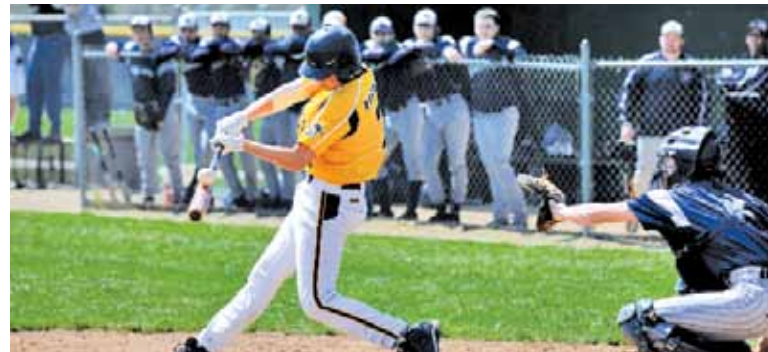

Senior Corey Bohache (IB). mainstay in the jacks line-up, batting 5th, one of the team's leaders in RBIs.

Lumberjacks fell Twin Valley South 20-7

In a score more typical of a football game, the Oakwood Lumberjacks thumped the Twin Valley South Panthers 20-7 Wednesday evening. The Panther starting pitcher, Wayne Boggs, walked the bases loaded in the 1st inning to start the Jacks rally. Corey Bohache followed with a sacrifice fly, scoring the first run, and Trent Jervis delivered a run scoring single for the second run of inning. Boggs wiggled out of the jam with a strike out to retire the side. In the top of second inning, Boggs loaded the bases again with two hit batsmen and a walk, bringing up left fielder, Colin Morris. Morris slashed a two hopper through the third basemen, scoring Ian Munn. Boggs continued to struggle with his controlling, walking into two more runs and forcing in a third on a hit batsman, setting the stage for Robbie Wagner. Wagner launched Boggs 2-1 offering into the soybean field beyond the right field fence for a grand slam, narrowly missing a farmer preparing the field for planting. Munn started the scoring machine again with his second HBP of the inning, tying an Oakwood School record for most times hit by pitch in an inning. After Beasore singled sharply to right, Morris lashed a frozen rope off the left field fence for a stand-up double, driving in Munn. Centerfielder Connor Charbat rapped the next pitch into centerfield for an RBI single, driving in Beasore for the ninth run of the inning.

The Panthers showed some fight in their half of the second frame, scoring two runs on a single and a pair of doubles off Jacks starter, Jeff Beall, cutting the Jacks lead to 11-2. Oakwood responded with another six runs in the top of the third inning, sending 11 players to the plate and running the score to 17-2. Home runs by designated hitter, Addison Arbogast – a three run shot – and by Nathan Rickard – a two run homer – were the decisive blows for the Jacks. Beall quickly retired the Panthers in the bottom of 3rd, bringing the Jacks back to the plate in the top of the fourth. After a single by Beall, sweet-swinging Robbie Wagner lofted a drive into the spring sky. The Panther right fielder stood in place and craned his neck as the ball left the premises for Wagner's second home run of the contest. Leading 20-7 in the bottom of the fifth, Coach Nathan Hyatt sent Colin Morris to the hill to mop up with a pair of strike outs and a ground out to end the game. The lopsided victory runs the Jacks record to 3-1. The Jack attack pounded out 15 hits and four home runs. Four players collected two hits apiece, led by Wagner with a pair of home runs for six RBIs and Arbogast with a home run and four RBIs. Beall earned his first victory of the season with three innings of solid pitching, scattering five hits and striking out five.

Obituary

Darrel B. Ashworth

age 88, of Dayton, passed away on Thursday, April 8, 2010 at Good Samaritan Hospital after a brief illness. He is survived by his beloved wife, Arvada J. Ashworth—they had just celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on April 6, 2010. He is also survived by his five children: daughters, Donna (Mike) Moosbrugger of Dayton and Karen (Jeff) Williams of Columbus; sons, Mark Ashworth of Dayton, Clark Ashworth of Tulsa, OK and Alan Ashworth of Dayton. He is also survived by his nine grandchildren: Emily Moosbrugger (Matt Meier) and Erin Moosbrugger; Matt Williams and Ben Williams; Shawn Ashworth and Kirsten (Brad) Hamilton; and Stephen Ashworth, Paul Ashworth, and Erica Ashworth; and his one great-grandson, Ethan Ashworth. He is survived, too, by many nieces and nephews, sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law. Darrel was born on August 8, 1921 in Daniels, WV, to Joe B. and Clara (Dodson) Ashworth. He graduated from Welch High School, in Welch, WV, in 1939, and then received both his bachelors and masters degrees from Marshall University in Huntington, WV. His college career was interrupted in 1942 by WWII when he left to serve in the U.S. Navy. During the war, he flew PV twin-engine planes, mainly in the South Atlantic; he left active duty in 1946, but stayed in the Navy Reserves for nearly twenty years, retiring as a Lt. Commander. After a story-book start as a teacher in a one-room schoolhouse in Raleigh County, WV, Darrel moved to Ohio in the early 50's and began what was to become a long and distinguished career as a math teacher, mostly at Oakwood and Fairview High Schools. Retired since 1980, Darrel always kept track of his former students, and took pride in their successes, and especially loved that many of his doctors had been his students. Although he had many interests, many talents, and many friends, Darrel's greatest passion in life was his family; he and Arvada, known to so many as Papaw and Granny, were very active in the lives of their children and grandchildren, and even in the lives of the friends of their children and grandchildren. They were always busy attending ballgames, swim meets, track meets, tennis matches, graduations, weddings and birthday parties. His children and grandchildren were, in turn, completely devoted to him; every one of them wanted to sit by Papaw. He spent his last days surrounded by his loving family and was especially grateful for their care and affection. He will be greatly missed his sense of humor, his famous stories, his frequent and secret $20 presents, his wonderful impact on so many lives, his commitment to his community, his amazing love for his family—Darrel was an inspiration to so many. A Memorial Service and celebration of Darrel's life was held 11am Monday, April 12, at Baker-Hazel & Snider Funeral Home & Crematory, 5555 Philadelphia Dr. at N. Main St., Dayton, OH 45415. The family received visitors 5 – 8 p.m. Sunday, April 11, 2010 at the funeral home. Online memories and condolences may be left for the family at www.bakerhazelsnider.com.

Betty McArthur Heller

age 87, of Dayton, OH, died on April 2, 2010, after a long illness. Born in Omaha, NE, to Marshall and Dorothy McArthur, she was a long time resident of Dayton. A graduate of Brownell Hall and Radcliffe College, Betty was an active and prominent volunteer throughout her life. She was a member of the Junior League of Dayton, a longtime supporter of Planned Parenthood of Dayton, a member of the Harvard Club of Dayton, and a supporter of many environmental causes. Betty was preceded in death by her husband of 59 years, Steven Heller, as well as her brother, Mickey McArthur, and her sister, Mary McArthur Holland. Betty is survived by her daughter, Elizabeth (Buffy) Heller Allen, and her sons, Steven McArthur Heller and John Wallace Heller, and her daughters-in-law, Anita Covington Heller and Melodie Heller, as well as seven grandchildren, Steven and Elizabeth Heller, Nicholas and Elizabeth Allen, and Shana, Cassidy and Caitlin Heller, and numerous dear friends. A memorial service in celebration of Betty's life will be held at 11:00 am, Saturday, April 24, at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 33 W. Dixon, Dayton, Reverend Judith A. Doran, pastor officiating. The family wishes to express their thanks for the wonderful care given to mom by Walnut Creek Nursing Home. If desired, memorial contributions can be made to The John Austin Cheley Foundation, or to Planned Parenthood. Tobias Funeral Home, Far Hills Chapel in care of arrangements. Condolences may be sent to tobiasfuneralhome.com.

Warner H. Kiefaber, Jr.

age 92, of Washington Township died Saturday, April 3, 2010. Warner attended Longfellow Grade School and graduated from Oakwood High School in 1935. He was editor of the Oakleaf annual and the newspaper and was an active participant in many sports. He graduated from Dartmouth College, class of '39 and attended Amos Tuck School of Business Administration, class of '40. At Dartmouth he was active in football, baseball, boxing, wrestling and handball. Following graduation he was briefly employed by the W.H. Kiefaber Company before joining the Navy. He was commissioned an Ensign on June 16, 1941 and the next day, on his 24th birthday, married his sweetheart, Annette. WW II was a major part of their lives for the next four years. Warner served in both the Atlantic and Pacific campaigns involving numerous South Pacific battles from 1942 to 1945 including the Japanese surrender in Tokyo Bay in September 1945. He retired from active duty in 1946 and returned to the Kiefaber Co. where he served as President and CEO from 1965 through 1985. Warner was actively involved in the community. He was one of the early directors of Sinclair College, a director of the Dayton YMCA, a founder and first president of Sycamore Creek Country Club, a founder of the Kettering YMCA, a director of Third National Bank and vice president and treasurer of Moraine Country Club where he was a lifelong member. He was also a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Oakwood. Warner had a special love for his cottage in the North Channel of Lake Huron in Ontario, Canada much of which he built himself. Summers there with friends and family are fondly remembered. Annette and Warner also enjoyed many trips abroad. At home he loved his friends and buddies with whom he worked out at the Dayton YMCA, played golf at Moraine, participated in investment clubs and social organizations including the 39er's, Dayton Rotary, The Dartmouth Club of Dayton and the Moraine Society. His family and friends will greatly miss his zest for life and his spirit to live each day to the fullest. Warner was preceded in death by his parents, Warner and Jeanette Kiefaber Sr. and sisters, Josephine Corwin and Maryanna McCray. He is survived by Annette, his best friend and wife of 69 years, four children, Warner H. Kiefaber III (Carolyn), Josephine Higinbotham (Randall) of Virginia, Robert W. Kiefaber (Leslie), John M. Kiefaber (Vicky), 12 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren. He is also survived by his sister, Jane Noland, of Virginia. Memorial services were held at 10 a.m. Friday, April 9 at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 33 W. Dixon Avenue in Oakwood. In lieu of flowers please consider a gift to the Dayton YMCA, 316 N. Wilkinson, Dayton, Ohio 45402. Condolences to the family may be sent to www.routsong.com.

Scholarship applications ready

Oakwood High School is pleased to announce that the local scholarship applications are available for this year's graduating class. Information regarding the various scholarships and their the required criteria is listed in the Student Planners. Seniors are invited to stop in the Guidance Office to review the wide variety of scholarships for which they may now apply. Most of these scholarships have a due date of April 23, 2010.

PTO Internet/cell safety meeting

The Parent/ Teacher Organizations of OJHS/OHS, Smith and Harman are sponsoring a meeting on Tuesday, April 13 at 7 p.m. in the Harman School auditorium regarding Internet and cell phone safety. Oakwood Safety Officer Gail Schmidt will speak about texting, sexting, cell phone and Internet safety for students. She offers a wealth of information for parents. We encourage you to attend this information meeting.

Kindergarten registration starts

Children who will be five years old on or before September 30, 2010, may be registered for kindergarten. Children who will be five years old between October 1, 2010 and January 1, 2011, may be considered for early entrance. Parents interested in early entrance may contact Lange School to request an application and testing information. It is important to note that state law makes Kindergarten a mandatory prerequisite for first grade.

All first graders must have successfully completed Kindergarten. Furthermore, state law requires that all entering Kindergarten students be screened for hearing, vision, speech and communication, health or medical problems and for developmental disorders.

Parent Orientation will be held on Wednesday, April 14, 7 p.m. at Lange School. This meeting is for parents ONLY. Parents do not need to bring any paperwork to the orientation meeting -- just your calendar.

Screening Appointments (April 19-22, 2010): Kindergarten Screening will be done on an appointment basis only from April 19 through April 22, 2010. Parents may sign up for appointment times at the orientation session or by calling Lange School at 299-8730 beginning Wednesday, April 15, 2010.

Energy Team makes every watt count

Oakwood's Energy Team has had a busy year of educating their peers and the community about energy concepts and conservation. Recently, 50 members of the team were responsible for teaching energy concepts to over 250 students from across the Miami Valley. The Energy Fair was held at the University of Dayton and hosted by the Ohio Energy Project and DP&L. The Energy Team has also assisted with the fourth and fifth grade science events for families and held sessions at the Wright Library. The team has also continued it's community service with Dayton Habitat for Humanity, creating energy efficient baskets for the new home owners and recently collected over 300 pairs of shoes for the Soles for Souls organization. Team members will soon be trained by University of Dayton students to use the thermal imaging camera and blower door (made possible with a generous grant from the Oakwood Education Foundation) and will begin completing home energy audits in the fall. The Energy Team focuses on empowering students to change their community and to make wise decisions about energy consumption in their future. The team is advised by Heidi Steinbrink.
