

Teen Read Week/Media Drive starts Oct. 19

This year's Teen Read Week theme is "Read Beyond Reality." Starting on Monday, Oct. 19, students at Oakwood Junior/Senior High School will be able to participate in several events at Wright Library. We will have a movie showing of Coraline in the Library Media Center (LMC) during lunch for students who have read or would like to read the book by Neil Gaiman. There will be several contests running throughout the week, as well.

Students will also be working to "change others' realities" by participating in a book/media drive. This is a joint effort between the Library Media Center and Oakwood Giving. We will be donating therapeutic books, DVD's, and magazine subscriptions to the Artemis Center for Alternatives to Domestic Violence in Dayton, Ohio (see below). Students who participate in the book/media drive will be entered into contests for several prizes, including a pizza party for the top donators.

The wish list for the Artemis Center can be found online by visiting http://www2.oakwood.k12.oh.us/~purdy_mindi/Purdy/News.html.

The titles do not have to be purchased from the Amazon.com Wish List, but participants are asked to email Mindi Purdy, Library Media Specialist, at purdy.mindi@oakwood.k12.oh.us if titles are purchased elsewhere so that the items can be removed from the list. Please have books shipped to the address on file with the wish list. Magazine subscriptions should be sent to: The Artemis Center, 310 W. Monument

Ave., Dayton, OH 45402.

Additionally, the Artemis Center would welcome the following items not available through Amazon.com (details found on website above). Please send these items to Oakwood Jr./Sr. High School, c/o Mindi Purdy, 1200 Far Hills Ave., Dayton, OH 45419:

My Ups and Downs card game
The Storytelling Card Game
Safety Planning with Children DVD
 Face masks expressing feelings that kids can paint (available at art and teacher supply stores)
 Dolls, books, and toys for children of diverse races and cultures

Alumni News

OHS alumna inducted into AU law group

Dr. Deidre Golash, chair of the Department of Justice, Law and Society and Korinna George, president of the Justice Advisory Group at American University, are pleased to announce that Meredith Hollingsworth was inducted into the "Legal Eagles", the student community of the Department of Justice, Law and Society at the university.

The program is nationally ranked among colleges and universities offering programs in justice, law and society.

Meredith is the daughter of Katherine and Frank Hollingsworth and graduated from Oakwood High School in 2009.

OHS alumni studying abroad in Denison U. program

Many of Denison University's undergraduate students choose to broaden their horizons through off-campus study each semester. In these programs, students continue to receive full credit toward a Denison degree while pursuing diverse research or academic opportunities. Denison offers hundreds of options for off-campus study programs both in the United States and overseas, ranging from traditional junior abroad programs in Europe to field project work in developing countries.

Two Denison University students and OHS alumni are studying off-campus for the fall 2009 semester. Gracie Sherk, class of 2011, is studying with the Advanced Studies in England program in the United Kingdom. Sherk majors in history and political science at Denison.

Ashley Warwar, class of 2011, is studying with the Salvador da Bahia: Liberal Arts program in Brazil. Warwar majors in political science at Denison.

Denison University, founded in 1831, is an independent, residential liberal arts institution located in Granville, Ohio.

OHS alumnus featured in Air Force commercial

Air Force Captain Aaron Lewis (Oakwood class of '98) is in an Air Force commercial as an airman being rescued. A photo of his face is shown as the rescuers confirm he is the one they are looking for. They ask him if he is ok and he says "My leg". He is the only one in the ad without gear covering his face. In real life, Aaron is a navigator on the HC-130 aircraft, stationed in Valdosta, Georgia.

OHS Class of '99 reunion in works

The Class of 1999 is having a 10-year reunion from 6 to 10 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 28, 2009. It will be held at the McGinnis Center on the campus of the University of Dayton (301 Lowes St.). Price of admission is yet to be determined. Food and beverages included. For information and to RSVP contact Ann McGinnis at: annmcginnis@gmail.com.
